WE NOMINATE

Ledlie Irwin Laughlin, one of Princeton University's key administrative officers, who this month is struggling for the last time with the problems of "admitting" still another Princeton Class. After a quarter-century of distinguished service to his alma mater and to education in general, Laughlin, now 63 and Associate Director of Admission since 1945, has elected to retire—to leave to others he has helped train the heavy responsibilities of maintaining a "constant flow of qualified and carefully selected students."

Few outside of education can sense all of the complexities of a college admissions operation that is concerned with infinitely more than high scores on achievement and aptitude tests and an individual's so-called "all-roundness." The records of all candidates are scrutinzed from a number of points of view and in this selective process Laughlin has proved himself a remarkable "guardian of the gate." In the past 25 years he has personally assessed the records of the approximately 15,000 students who have entered Princeton and has also processed the applications of additional thousands.

Laughlin, a member of a pioneering Pittsburgh family and a graduate of St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., returned to the campus 16 years after he had completed his undergraduate studies. In the intervening period, except for World War I duty as an infantry captain with the A.E.F., he had been associated with the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation, the company he continues to serve as a member of its board of directors. He established his home here in 1928 and was finally persuaded by Dean Radcliffe Heermance and the late Carl Brigham to accept appointment under Heermance as Assistant to the Director of Admission. Down through the years this singularly effective "admissions team" perfected the details of a faculty-inspired program originally known in the early 1920's by a high-sounding and academically phrased title, "Limitation of Enrollment by means of a Selective System of Admission."

Described by a colleague as the "most loyal and conscientious worker I have ever known," Laughlin brought to his admissions career all of the skills of the trained executive as well as a delightful sense of humor that carried him through hectic post-war stretches which produced 1,500 letters of inquiry a week, and 1,000 applications a month, from World War II veterans. A perfectionist in whatever he undertakes, Laughlin also happens to be one of the country's leading authorities on pewter, the kind of specialist to whom other collectors and even museums turn for consultation when they can't find the answers in his standard work, Pewter in America.

For personifying what he has sought in others, namely, "those basic qualities which make up the useful life:" for his "wide and sane humanity" in interpreting the aims and needs of higher education; for his self-effacing devotion to the things he believes in; he is the Editors' nominee for

Random Notes. Rent control may still exist in the borough, and can possibly remain in effect until July 31. Although the mayor and council voted to end such ceilings on April 30, they had gone on record last summer as ready to follow Federal action. Thus when national controls were extended another 90 days, they probably covered the borough. Attorney Edgar S. Smith will report on the matter shortly.

● Small fry who have spent the first years of their lives wishing they could ride a man-size shiny red fire engine will find their dreams coming true Saturday. A feature of the Wellesley Bazaar (at Miss Fine's School, 11 to 5) will be rides offered on an engine equipped with all the trappings from bells to wailing siren and ladders.

Note to the Princeton Fire Department: don't bother looking to see if one of yours is missing—this one is being driven from Point Pleasant by an amusement company which rents them for just such occasions.

● Princetonians who think they have never seen as much rain as has fallen in the last three months are absolutely right. Total precipitation for February, March and April has exceeded all weather bureau records kept for any three-month period in the past 67 years.

● The circus is coming to town Thursday, May 28. Hunt Brothers' familiar troupe will make its appearance twice that day under sponsorship of the Princeton Lions Club.

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

● Townspeople who still can't understand why undergraduates assume the right to stage a riot on other people's property think maybe the corner has been turned. They noted with no small satisfaction that the University received a sizeable grant to further "The Study of Human Behaviour."

● Kazmaier (a dog) has been lost — see classified section. Kazmaier (the All-American) will be married next month and plans to make Princeton his home during the summer.

● Also in the classified pages (9, 10, 11, 18, 19): a larger selection of short and long-term rentals than has been offered in some months; a wide choice of job opportunities; facts on future events; articles for sale ranging from furniture and oriental rugs to lawn mowers, portable dishwashers and luggage trailers; a plea to the owners of a striped orange tom cat to keep him from appropriating the catnip mice of the cat who lives at 55 Park Place.

Parking Lot Drive To Start. Further progress on off-street parking lots slated to go into municipal ownership will be made at Tuesday night's borough council meeting. An ordinance is scheduled to be introduced guiding acquisition of three areas in the vicinity of Nassau Street.

Ear-marked to alleviate the shortage of spaces that continues despite meters is land between Nassau and Park Place; between Nassau and Williams; and between Nassau and Spring. Borough officials still hope that condemnation proceedings will not be necessary but have indicated that — in the public interest — such action will be instituted if no other solution can be reached.

Health Council Planned. Steps to form a long-discussed citizens health council in Mercer County will be taken at a meeting scheduled for next Thursday, May 14. It will be held at Lawrence Township School No. 4 on U.S. Route 1, with Theodore D. Vreeland of Princeton presiding.

Those backing the move hope to coordinate health activities in the county, particularly with regard to maintenance of records and vital statistics. Progress is also sought in the battle against tuberculosis: Mercer County's rate, currently the highest in New Jersey, has increased by 20% in the past 12 months.

Among those sponsoring the meeting are the Princeton Council of Community Services and Princeton physicians who belong to the Mercer County Medical Society. The session at 8 p.m. next Thursday will be open to the public.

Battle Continues. Residents of Montgomery Township have taken a nearly unanimous stand against revision of the zoning ordinance in their municipality which would permit operation of a large quarry by the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company. Dr. George Gallup, a resident of the area, has given the Montgomery Planning Board a bound volume containing petitions against revision signed by more than two-thirds of the 1,200 township residents of voting age. Additional signatures are anticipated; less than 50 persons have indicated approval of the company's plans to locate there.

It's New to Us

High-Fidelity Cooking. No matter how well you cook there are times, probably, when your family thinks you have gone stale (although you know, yourself, that you're as fresh and creative as ever!) To prove that you're still on the watch for something new, stop at Princeton Gourmet, 180 Nassau, and have a look around.

Here's an imposing gold-tooled white leather volume that looks like Webster's Collegiate. It's Samuel Chamberlain's Epicurean Tour of the Provinces of France, published by Gourmet. You keep it in the living-room and copy recipes out of it—who would dare take it to a kitchen? Price is $10 and you can have a name put on in gold. Wedding gift?

Other, more work-a-day cookbooks are concerned with curries, chafing dish meals (this one won a book-design prize) or the creation of Italian and French dishes (without gold tooling).

You might not expect to find aesthetic satisfaction in an omelet pan (especially without the omelet.) But the new French pans in this shop are simple, gleaming and satisfying. They are shiny aluminum, gently flaring at the rim, with long slender wooden handles that have been polished to a dark glow. Season these pans carefully, then use them only for omelets. At the price, you can have a whole set of three: a giant 11½ inches across is only $3.30; a middle-sized one (9½ inches) is $2.50 and a small eight-incher is $2.20.

Vitrified porcelain has been combined with black wrought iron and copper in a series of big pieces—a 20-cup coffee pot, three and one-half quart casserole and a bean pot that holds five quarts. That coffee pot is handsome enough to use for display in your kitchen (next to an omelet pan.) Price: about $15 for each piece.

For strawberry season, buy a tray with red berries painted on black or white. Or an oblong tray with pear halves meticulously painted on a black ground. And for a real party—a round white tray, 18 inches across, with limes on its rim.

Does he cook? Get him a denim apron like the standard European butler's apron with center pocket. Or another style in black and white stripes. For $3.95.

Set the Table . . . with plastic tumblers designed especially for table use without that toothpaste look. These, at Urken's, 27 Witherspoon, have fluted bottoms and quiet colors like off-white, a rose that's deep and dusty, or grey green. Boonton makes them, six for $2.35, in a gift carrier.

Take your coffee or tea from a pot in hammered aluminum. These pots come in sets, including sugar, creamer and tray. One set, for $4.95, has a tiny four-cup percolator. Another set for $9.95, has a full-sized percolator. This larger set is plain aluminum, unhammered. Handles are black plastic that contrasts nicely with the metal finish.

Whether your barbecue is in the backyard or at Washington's Crossing, you can use a ranch-style cooking tool set. Has things like pancake turner, cooking fork, la-

Among the ill effects of permitting heavy industry to enter the rural community, residents assert will be a steadily mounting tax rate resulting from greatly increased municipal services. Dr Russell Carrier, representing the Belle Mead Sanitorium, the township's largest taxpayer, has reported that quarrying and blasting in the area would result in its closing.

Residential development of the township is planned by the league formed to combat the proposed zoning revision. Another meeting on the subject is scheduled for the Harlingen School on May 20 or 27.

Jury Hears About Bingo. Four Princetonians are serving on the May term of the Mercer County Grand Jury: Henry L. Barlow, 46 Park Place; Harry A. Nelson, 48 North Stanworth; John E. Kerney, 117 Mercer Street, and Daniel T. Pierce, Jr., The Great Road.

They have been told by Judge Ralph J. Smalley that bingo is a violation of the law, and that its use for fund-raising purposes by any organization is illegal. His statement is expected to end games in the Trenton area, but Princeton has taken no stand on the matter to date.

Jersey City has, however: supporters of Mayor John V. Kenney were invited to play bingo at a big political rally. Winners wouldn't get prizes, the mayor announced, which would go instead to winners of a quiz session. The catch was that only winners of the bingo games could get into the quiz contest.

Scholarship Funds Sought. Four more scholarships will be awarded this year by the Princeton High School PTA, which has raised more than $700 for this purpose. Last year's winners were James Cooper and the Misses Josephine Freda, Anita Hoagland and Sonia Kubon.

Magazine subscriptions (new, renewals and special offers) are accepted by the committee the year 'round as the principal source of its income. Checks will be welcome during the summer months, made out to the Princeton High School Magazine Committee and mailed to Mrs. C. Stanley Green, 108 Laurel Road.

Mrs. Roger O'Kane is chairman of the committee in charge. Assisting her are Mrs. Bernard Bergessen, Mrs. S. M. Christian, Mrs. John Hutton, Mrs. Leon Nergaard, Mrs. Dilman Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Wengel.

Queen of the May. Miss Fine's School will hold its annual May Day ceremonies this Friday. Leslie McAneny, president-elect of the student council, will be crowned queen by this year's president, Caroline Rosenblum. Classes five through 12 will take part in the ceremonies, while the May Day program for the lower school will be held next Friday, May 15.

Other officers elected this spring are Lucy Boselli, secretary of the council; Ann Claflin, chairman of social service; Ann Freedman, treasurer; Carol Harris, secretary; Elsie Scorff, president of the middle school council; Lucinda Phelps, vice-president; Frances Hitchcock, secretary.

Bank, has been elected president of the New Jersey Bankers Association. The organization will hold a convention marking its 50th anniversary in Atlantic City this weekend.

Memorial Day Committee Named. Princeton Post No. 76, American Legion, has named the committee which will direct its annual Memorial Day parade. All civic and fraternal organizations are invited to be in the line of march on May 30; those who do not receive letters asking them to do so within the next ten days are asked to call the chairman, D. Don Richards (0914 or 4274).

Serving with Richards in various capacities will be Col. Donald W. Griffin, Harold M. Hinkson, James Whitlow, Robert Schmidt, William Birch, George Cahill, Henry Robertiello, Joseph Furch, Jr., Ellwood Blydenburgh, Harold Perrine, Eric Jungburg, Nathaniel McKee, Frank Bird, Alphonse Robertiello, William Haupt, Chester Page, Marino Ferrara and Mrs. Anne Clayton.

Stevenson New Council Treasurer. Walker W. Stevenson, Jr., a resident of nearby Griggstown and a partner in the hrokerage firm of Hemphill, Noyes & Co., has been elected treasurer of the Princeton Graduate Council. Donald W. Griffin of 44 Washington Road was re-elected secretary, a post he has held since 1935.

Among six alumni named honorary members were Dr. Gregg Dougherty of 95 Library Place and Andrew C. Imbrie of 20 Hibben Road. Chosen to serve as representatives-at-large were Dr. Robert F. Goheen of 1 Orchard Circle and Gilbert Lea of the Province Line Road.

Cooper Is Cited. The American Bar Association has received a special award of merit in recognition of its active role in the national non-partisan "register and vote" campaign conducted in connection with last year's presidential election hy the American Heritage Foundation.

The award was based on the activities of the association's Standing Committee on American Citizenship, whose chairman is John C. Cooper of 1 Armour Road. Mr. Cooper, editor of the American Bar Association's "Citizenship Quarterly Bulletin," was credited with encouraging "wider public interest in the responsibilities of citizenship." Robert G. Storey of Dallas, association president, called the award "well deserved recognition of an important job well done."

Art Exhibits. The Little Gallery, 39 Palmer Square, is featuring an exhibition of the paintings of George Cherepov, which will he on display until May 20. A native of Lithuania, Mr. Cherepov has traveled widely throughout Europe and has executed portraits of a number of well-known personages on that continent.

After the last war, he was elected a member of the Selections Jury, Society of Artists of South Bavaria, and his portraits and landscapes were placed in the permanent collections of revitalized German museums. Since coming to the United States early in 1952, he has had one-man shows in several Connecticut cities, including the Mun-

Miscellany. Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jacobs, 26 Witherspoon Street; Mr. and Mrs. William Moffo, Ewing Street; Mr. and Mrs. Junius A. Davis, 222-B Eisenhower Street; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnson, R.D. 1.

Parents of daughters include Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Succop, 7 Grover Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. John Lanzzetta, 32 Witherspoon Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Bradford, Brunswick Pike; Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan L. Friedman, Terhune Road; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, Somerville Road; Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Missie, Church Street, Kingston.

Neal Gavin, 21 Lytle Street, has started a 30-day workhouse sentence for disorderly conduct. He was charged with striking Mrs. Cornelia Gilette, 25 Green Street, in the face after an argument over an article of clothing he said he had bought her.

A Georgetown University student, in Princeton during houseparty weekend, was fined $105 for taking an automobile without the owner's permission. Motorists fined for speeding included William Houghton, Kingston Road; Mrs. Gordon Knox, 55 Mountain Avenue; and Mrs. Christopher Rodgers, The Great Road.

Parents' Day will be observed Saturday at The Hun School, the headmaster, Dr. Paul R. Chesebro, has announced. Following luncheon, the student body, their parents and other guests will attend a baseball game between the school and Rutgers Prep.

Election of officers will take place this Friday night at 8 at the May meeting of the St. Paul's PTA. Mothers of first grade pupils will be in charge of refreshments.

John K. Ewing IV, a Princeton junior, was killed Saturday while mountain climbing near New Haven, Conn. A 150-lb. boulder struck him on the head as he and companions, roped together, were going up the side of a steep cliff. A resident of Berwyn, Pa., he died of a fractured skull.

The Nassau Building and Loan Association will hold its annual meeting Tuesday, May 19, at 5 o'clock in the First National Bank. Five directors will be elected and other business will be transacted.

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church will hold its spring luncheon meeting Monday at the Second Church. Alterations to the First Church necessitate the shift in location.

A talk on "The Work of the Presbyterian Church in the French Cameroun" will be given at 11:30 by Miss Frances Gray, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions for Africa. Following the serving of luncheon at 1 by Mrs. Frederick Stephan and her committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Oskin will speak at 2 on "Christian Education in Camp and Conference." Reservations for the luncheon should be made at the First Church by Friday.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Princeton Lions Club will meet Monday at 6:45 at the Nassau Tavern for dinner. Mrs. Marie Pelikan, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the slate of officers for the next 12 months.

The auxiliary is planning a cake and apron sale Saturday, May 16, from 9 until 12:30 at the Nassau Paint Store, 126 Nassau Street. Mrs. R. B. Kimble will be in charge.

The Legislation Committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a dinner meeting Monday at 6:30 at the Peacock Inn. The speaker will be Gordon D. King, an attache at the American Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan, who is engaged in special studies at Princeton University.

He will discuss the status of women in Afghanistan and give an illustrated lecture on the country. Mrs. Florence Rockwell, chairman of the committee in charge, is being assisted by Mrs. Bertha Golden, Miss Mabel Walker, Mrs. Rose Pearson and Mrs. Ethel Peresett.

Saturday, May 23, has been set as the date for the annual Princeton Country Day School Fair. It will be held, rain or shine, from 1:30 to 6 that afternoon, with the annual fathers-sons baseball game one of the features.

The scrap paper drive, normally held on the second Sunday of each month by Princeton Post No. 76, American Legion, has been postponed to May 17. The reason: May 10 is Mother's Day.

Mrs. Jan A. Rajchman has been elected president of the Princeton Township School PTA for 1953-54. Those who will serve with her are Dr. Warren G. Findley, first vice-president; Mrs. J. P. Redwood, second vice-president; Mrs. Paul Weimer, recording secretary; Mrs. Frederick Burrell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William L. Wilson, treasurer.

St. Paul's Holy Name Society will hold its annual picnic at the Squatters' Grove on Quaker Road June 17. A charge of 50 cents to defray expenses will be made, with tickets available from the captain of each member's district.

May unit meetings planned by the League of Women Voters next week will have as their subject various forms of municipal government, so that members may be informed about the planning to be done by the Joint Consolidation Committee.

Meetings, open to the public, will follow this schedule:

Monday, 8:15 p.m.: home of Mrs. Gerald Breese, 65 Olden Avenue; Mrs. Werner Hollman, discussion leader; Tuesday, 8:15 p.m., home of Mrs. William Abrams, 35 University Place; Mrs. Richard Van Wagenen, discussion leader.

Wednesday, 10 a.m.: home of Mrs. Richard Lester, 121 Broadmead; Mrs. Jacob Viner, discussion leader; Wednesday, 8:15 p.m., home of Miss Hetty Goldman, 2 Newlin Road; Mrs. William Gibbons, discussion leader; Thursday, 1:15 p.m., home of Mrs. Alan Carrick, Prospect Avenue and Cedar Lane; Mrs. Donald Wallace, discussion leader.

The general alarm Tuesday night was for a fire at the Ridgeview Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl D. Pettit. Flames which broke out in the service quarters spread to the main dwelling and did an estimated several thousand dollars worth of damage before firemen dle and so on, all with handles of natural wood and a design burned into the wood, brandin' style. For $5.45.

Now, if you'll step into the conservatory—Urken's has an African violet kit to help you cultivate a purple thumb. For $2.98 you have bags of potting mixture, plant food, a rooting medium that contains root stimulating hormones, and a spray for things like mealy bugs and some of the more repulsive members of the spider mite family. Everything, in fact, except an African violet.

What about a plastic leprechaun to sit on your lawn and wrinkle his nose at you when you come home some 2 a.m.? Or, if there's no Irish in you, try a sleeping Mexican, a coach-and-four, or an aggressive Scottie. All, in plastic, for prices ranging upward to 98c. If you have no lawn they could go in a child's room.

Those Dutch Again. This time we have from Holland neither pewter nor plate, but Dutch chocolate packed into a pair of wooden shoes. Viedt's, 110 Nassau, has the shoes —they are about eight inches long and they are real shoes (but probably uncomfortable as the dickens).

Outside, a natural wood finish brightly decorated by hand. Inside, chocolate balls wrapped in foil. Hang them on your kitchen wall when the chocolates have been eaten up. For $3.45 the pair.

Elegance, Not Extravagance. A jewel box lined with satin and velvet—sounds royal, doesn't it? The price is a commoner, though: only $7.20, including tax. These boxes are red, blue or olive green imitation leather, traced with gold leaves on the border. Size about six by ten inches, with hinged tray in-from Princeton and three other communities brought them under control after a battle of more than an hour.

The Women's Division of the United Jewish Appeal will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Louis Rakin, Province Line Road, to hear a talk by Mrs. Helen C. Benatar. Mrs. Benatar, active during the last war in the French underground, has aided refugees in North Africa under auspices of the UN. Mrs. Thomas Stix, chairman of the Women's Division, is being assisted in plans for the affair by Mrs. Manuel Greenblatt, Mrs. Meyer Goldstein, Mrs. Melvin Cagen and Mrs. Rubin Schwartzstein.

West Windsor Township exceeded its Red Cross fund quota of $2,654, raising $2,780. James H. Cooper, district captain, has thanked all workers and contributors for their cooperation.

Robert N. Smith, R.D. 1, has been awarded the degree of M.F.A. in architecture by Princeton. John T. Law, Mansgrove Road, is on the Dean's List, the scholastic honor roll at Harvard.

Mayor P. MacKay Sturges, calling attention to Saturday, May 16, as Armed Forces Day, asks that flags be flown throughout the community on that occasion to commemorate "the devotion and achievement" of the men and women who have served the United States.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Five Stars. Princeton High took mighty aim with its production of "Carousel" by Rodgers and Hammerstein and scored a direct hit. In fact, to take on the staging of a major musical play with such success is a staggering accomplishment of which any school in the world could be proud.

The school's greatest talent resource is its voices and the great credit for making such good use of them goes to Thomas Hilbish, the director. The choreography by Mrs. Janice Van Ness was more than adequate, too, and there were numerous technical achievements.

Sandra Dinsmore as the lively Carrie Pepperidge won top honors as a stage personality, but there were other performances of great excellence, notably by James Kuist as Billy Bigelow, the carousel-barker, and Jean Smith as Julie Jordan. Carol Search, Richard Buxton and Donald Smith all aided in making the musical click, and among the dancers Susan Sheldrick and Bryce Rittenhouse were nifty.

You can take you pick of the best numbers and the choice here is Miss Dinsmore's "Mister Snow," "June Is Bustin' Out All Over," the Hornpipe, "A Real Nice Clam bake" and Miss Sheldrick's ballet solo. Other effects, such as Theodore White's song soliloquy behind a scrim, were also striking.

"Carousel" itself has some potentiality as a folk drama set to music, but the characteristic R & H corny-as-Kansas-in-August kind of stuff can be deadly. However, while there were many inexpert things about it, this PHS "Carousel" transcended the so-called limitations of a high school production.

MURRAY THEATRE

The Drunkard as produced by the Theatre Intime proved an appropriate May frolic and continues its run at the Murray Theatre with performances nightly at 8:30 through Saturday. Tickets are still available at the University Store and the box office.

Given a full house in a cooperating frame of mind, fine old melodrama (this one was written in 1844 as a vehicle for the Boston Temperance movement) can be fun for audience and cast alike.

The play demands deadpan satirical handling nowadays and the Intime players managed it most of the time. "The Drunkard" is wildly organized and the individual bits are the most satisfying. The direction of Hugh G. Hardy '54 (who also contributed his usual fine sets) proved excellent in lending the comic touches.

Almost everyone in the large cast had at least one moment of triumph, but the leads showed the greatest consistency. They were Ben Piazza '55 (The Fallen Saved), Mrs. Georgine Hall (sweetest and fairest of all), Adie Dietz '56 (black varmint of cunning villainy) and Barrie K. Bates '56 (loyal friend and supporter). Mrs. Hall scored particularly with her facial expressions.

Roger Poor '55 was visually amazing as pious and noble saviour, Miss Clare Minton (a maniac) had a wonderful trapdoor entrance, and 9-year old Shirley Hartle caught the spirit as a starving child. Mrs. Peggy Kalmar Allison had a great success as the singer (a slut of distinction) and the barroom style of Mark Schwartz (poignant piano artistry) was another high spot. "Who but a stone could remained unmoved" by this moral domestic drama.

UNIVERSITY CHAPEL

Haydn's "Creation" will be sung by the Princeton University Chapel Choir and the Smith College glee club at the annual Elizabeth Milbank Anderson memorial concert this Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Chapel. Tickets may be obtained without charge from Mrs. MacKenty Bryan, 2-A North Middle Reunion Hall, (tel. 1-0453).

The combined choirs will be under the direction of Carl Weinrich. Soloists will be Helen Boatwright, soprano; Natasha Lutov, contralto; John Hanks, tenor and Paul Matthen, bass. Mrs. Mary Krimmel will be the organist and the instrumental accompaniment will be by professional players from New York.

THE PLAYHOUSE

House of Wax (Thurs.-Tues.) is a three Dimension film and much further along the way from both technical and story viewpoints than "Bwana Devil," which first kicked up the 3-D fuss. A special Warner sound system adds to the powerful depth sensation and the superior technical work is most welcome.

While the thrills-and-chills story is not too serious and the performances tend to be dwarfed by aural and visual effects, the plot is a good showcase for the technique. Vincent Price plays a mad sculptor who uses corpses as frames for his wax figures. Frank Lovejoy is the detective and Phyllis Kirk the heroine, who has objections to being used as the frame for a wax Marie Antoinette. Polarized viewers will be handed out at the door. Completing a full week at advanced prices.

Never Wave at a Wac (Wed.-Sat.) gets away with some sophisticated slapstick in spite of the title. Rosalind Russell plays a Washington cocktail party hostess who tries to trifle at being a Wac. Assisted by Marie Wilson and Paul Douglas, the wonderful Miss Russell generates, some good amusement, if women's service comedies are your dish.

Packard Invitation Month
MAY 9TH TO JUNE 9TH

You are invited to take an important part in the great New Packard Program

Here is an unusual opportunity to see for yourself the fine new cars that make the New Packard Program the news story of this automotive year. 25 beautiful new cars will be awarded, including a glamorous Packard Caribbean. We hope you will join us. Please read on—

LAST December the people of this country gave a typical, enthusiastic welcome to the announcement that Packard was returning to the fine-car field. Once again America had a new choice in fine cars!

At the same time, the Packard CLIPPER was announced as the only medium-priced car in America built in the fine-car tradition. The big type of car, priced just a few hundred dollars more than the low-priced lines.

These announcements were the first step in the revitalized Packard Program! Now you are invited to participate in step number two with 12 new Packards and 12 new Packard CLIPPERS to be awarded those who follow the simple rules for participating in Packard Invitation Month.

May 9th to June 9th is the time. Just visit your dealer then. See the new Packard or CLIPPER and, on an official participation form (which your dealer will provide), write 25 words or less about the feature that impresses you most. Tell us what we should say about that feature in future advertising.

Send in as many suggestions as you wish. Just be sure that each one is written on an official participation form and is in the mail before midnight on June 9th, 1953. See your Packard dealer soon.

side. You'll find them at LaVake's, 54 Nassau.

Kensington aluminum ware (it's an alloy) has a cool simplicity that attracts anyone who likes good modern pieces. You're familiar already with the round, etched plates. Now there is a tray, about 12 by 18 inches, selling for $12.50. And a covered vegetable dish with a wreath on its top. This one is $17.50.

Some special new models in the Telechron line have just been put on LaVake's clock shelf. These are only $3.98, including tax. They are little fellows, one a hexagon, one in a box-like case. The cases are ivory plastic and the dials either radium or plain. Looks like a bargain.

Some attractive little table accessories have been made by combining sterling silver with white, rose-painted china. The roses are few, far, and bud-size, their delicacy perfectly suited to the size of the pieces. We saw a small salt and pepper, an ash tray, and a little mustard jar with its spoon.

Fostoria has brought back the old-fashioned castor, with its two cruets and salt and pepper. These are in glass on a silver-plated castor for $36.00.

Outside, in-Fashion. Some good-looking cotton and hemberg dresses have been hung on the racks at Wolman's, 25 Witherspoon. These house dresses come in half-sizes, 14½ to 24½, and full sizes from 12 to 52. It's not always easy to fit larger sizes, but these dresses do the job.

There are classic cuts in seersucker or plain cotton. You may choose a shirt-waist, or a button-down-the-fronter. We liked one that had a slenderizing pointed insert going up the front from belt to neckline.

Plaids are here in all sizes, most of them darker shades like deep mustard or navy, and all of them with elasticized waistlines. Here's a different seersucker instead of stripes, an irregular bark-cloth effect in a design that has a surplice neck and big black buttons.

And speaking of out-sizes, you tall girls will want to see those Seam-Pruf slips in rayon or nylon. Designed especially for the gal who's tall as a lemonade.

NEWS OF THE THEATRES

THE GARDEN

Jamaica Run (Thurs.-Sat.) is a good old Caribbean melodrama-romance in Technicolor dressed into a "modern" format. A resort hotel promoter produces some phoney heirs to a fine old Jamaican estate and the identity of the real is thought to be buried with a long-sunken ship. After much underwater action, murder and romance, the old plantation burns anyway. Ray Milland and Arlene Dahl head the stars, and look for Walt Disney's "The Olympic Elk" from his annual series on the same program.

The Quiet Man (Mon.-Tues.) returns with two Academy Awards for a special engagement. It's a wonderful picture of life in Ireland, played with great warmth by John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Barry Fitzgerald and Victor McLaughlin, and beautifully photographed. Wayne is a retired boxer attempting to win Miss O'Hara, to the great annoyance of her brother (McLaughlin). An epic cross-country fight wraps matters up.

Marry Me (Wed.-Thurs.) is a British comedy starring Derek Bond, Susan Shaw and Nora Swinburne. Not reviewed at press time.

The Stars Are Singing (Fri.-Sat.) features the talents of Rosemarie Clooney, Lauritz Melchior and Anna Maria Alberghetti in a typical lightweight show biz plot, repeatedly interrupted by musical numbers. Many of them are quite attractive, as is the personality of Miss Clooney.

Sports in Princeton

Bright Future. The current spring sports season, miserable as it has been from the spectator's view, may possibly be the best in Princeton athletic history. Measured in terms of trophies, titles and championship teams, it holds immense possibilities for the Tigers.

For example: the Princeton crew has already won the Childs and Compton Cups, something it has never achieved in one season since the latter was first placed in competition. If the Tigers can take the Carnegie Cup on the Housatonic Saturday, they will have a "triple" that may go unmatched for years.

The track team, having whipped Yale in the mist and rain of Palmer Stadium last weekend, goes against Cornell at Ithaca this Saturday and then Pennsylvania at Franklin Field. If the Tigers take those two, they'll complete their first season unbeaten in dual competition since 1938.

Nothing less than the national title is in sight of the lacrosse team, which ran Navy into the ground on University Field Saturday, 13-8. The Tigers must get by Yale this weekend and Army at West Point a week later, with the latter contest a particularly rugged assignment.

Another title has virtually been clinched, although the season has another fortnight to run. Having whacked Cornell last Friday, 5-2, the tennis team has all but wrapped up its fourth straight Eastern championship.

The 150-lb. crew has established itself as a possible Eastern champion when the lightweight regatta is staged on Carnegie May 16. The Tigers, who took the Goldthwait Cup from Yale and Harvard at Derby last weekend, meet the defending champions, Pennsylvania, on the Schuylkill Saturday.

The Eastern Golf championships will be staged on Springdale this Saturday, but even familiarity with the course does not install the Tiger entry as the favorite. Yale knocked the Nassau linksmen off, 7-0, at New Haven last week.

Princeton's other spring sports team is still in the running for the Eastern League title but is expected to have too great a series of hurdles to overcome. Games with Cornell and Harvard, postponed once, must be rescheluled—always a difficulty during the short season—and the 3-3 tie with Brown is likely to go into the books as "half a victory, half a defeat." Since the league is expected to approve such a policy, percentages to determine the standings will be discarded and the hockey-scoring system of two points for a win, one for a tie will be used.

Dramatic Finish. The handful of spectators who braved the 45-degree temperature and chill east wind in Palmer Stadium Saturday could hardly have enjoyed a long run for a winning touchdown more than they did the outcome of the dramatic low hurdles event. Yale, leading in the pole vault and heavily favored to add another five points by taking the mile relay, had won the high hurdles by a solid margin. Repetition in the lows would give the Blue victory by the slim score of 71 to 69.

Don Keller broke fast and had a visible margin by the fourth hurdle. Right behind him came Homer Smith, a last-minute choice by Coach Matty Geis. In the last 100 yards, the two Princetonians pulled steadily away from three Yale entries, winning by margins of five to six yards in an unusual upset. Track, like swimming, normally goes very much according to form.

Domination of the field events (four first places and a share in a triple tie for the high jump) as-

Pay For Your Heat The Easy Budget Way

Most families handle household expenses as some sort of budget system — but fuel bills usually don't fit very well into a system . . . Because weather varies, it is hard to know how much a bill will be for any single month. And LARGE bills hit the budget during the midwinter months when the weather is coldest.

The Better Way . . .

We recommend that you pay for oil with our Easy-Budget Plan. It works this way: The amount of oil you will burn in the next heating season is estimated in advance. Next, we multiply this amount by the estimated average price of oil for the next season. Then we divide the total into equal payments which you pay at the same time each month, throughout the heating season year.

Costs Nothing Extra . . .

There is NO INTEREST, NO EXTRA CHARGE of any kind for the Easy-Budget Plan. For the oil you use you will pay the price in effect at time of delivery, just as you now do. You will receive a meter ticket with each delivery showing the gallons delivered and the price per gallon. But payments will be more convenient to make.

More and more families are paying for their oil in this more practical way. If the plan sounds good to you, please let us know and we will gladly put it into effect for you.

sured the victory, the success coupled with last year's at New Haven marked the first time since 1938-39 that Princeton has clinched the Elue twice in a row in this sport.

The Hazards of Rowing. Everything from fog to hail worked against the contestants in the Compton Cup regatta on the Charles River Basin Saturday, and the Princeton freshman crew had an added obstacle a sightseers' boat that strayed into its path near the finish, affecting its steering so adversely that the race was ruled "no contest." The varsity had a considerably better time of it, leading after the first half mile and staving off a final Harvard bid to win by a half a length. M.I.T. was third on all three occasions.

On past performances, Princeton and Yale (the latter coached by Jim Rathschmidt, former freshman coach here) are just about even this season. Each has lost to Olympic champion Navy by four lengths; each has beaten Columbia and Penn over the Henley distance, the Lions trailing both times by about three-quarters of a length.

The Carnegie Cup (Princeton, Cornell, Yale) calls for a two-mile race on the Housatonic Saturday afternoon. Those who pick Princeton may well be right.

Fine Victory. The second half of what was to have been a baseball-lacrosse doubleheader proved a smashing success for Coach Ferris Thomsen's stickwielders at University Field Saturday. Ferris called the decisive triumph over the able middies "the greatest victory in my three years here."

The Tigers had a 5-2 record going into the Rutgers game this week, and Johns Hopkins, their only conquerer, has been beaten twice. Army, however, has not lost, and will be a particularly rugged opponent on May 16. The cadets tied Princeton here last season in a wild and wooly 11-all affair, and upset the Tigers in 1951 when the two teams tied for the national title.

Tie Games to Count? Rain and darkness took care of any chance the baseball team had of coming from behind to beat Brown last week. With sophomore Dick Emery back in form and hurling topflight relief ball, the Nassau nine gave indications that it might nudge the Bruins' starter, Ken Moffat, for one more tally. After falling behind, 3-0, when Al Bryant gave up eight hits in five innings, the Tigers had tied the count with one in the fifth and two in the sixth. Emery came on to retire the first 12 men to face him but Moffat did not allow further scoring and at 6:42 plate umpire Art Hondzow called the game.

Yale at New Haven this Saturday and Penn on University Field Wednesday at 4 are next on the league schedule. After that, it will be Dartmouth at Hanover and some possibility of a game with Cornell at Ithaca on May 18. That and the chance of meeting Harvard at New Haven on June 6, the morning before another game with Yale—will only occur if Princeton is still in the running for the title.

Quiet Weekend. Outside the steady action on Springdale's links, where more than a dozen teams will compete for the golf championship, little action is scheduled for Princeton this Saturday.

The tennis team meets North Carolina on the Church Courts at 2:30, and a couple of crew races are set for Carnegie between freshman boats and Kent School. Otherwise, the show's entirely on the road.

Driving Range Open. The popular golf range operated by Whit Savidge at the Princeton-Nassau Airpark is open again for the spring and summer season Located on the Brunswick Pike between

Penns Neck and Clarksville, it is open daily from 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m., being lighted for night use.

Among the features: a target with a gong for a bullseye and a free airplane ride to anyone who hits it. Contests may be arranged during the coming season, with suggestions welcome.

Hun School Sports. George School, which had beaten Hun's baseball team and then lost six in a row, provided the Red and Black with a chance to even the score last week. The Edgerstoune nine lost no time in seizing the opportunity, coming home from Newtown with a 7-2 triumph.

Pat Tidey pitched a one-hitter to bring Hun into the win column after seven straight defeats. The Red and Black could notch only four safe blows itself, but George School chipped in with ten errors to make the going easy. Three runs in the first and three more in the second, Vic Perone, Russ Summers and Ray Alherigi each scoring twice, sent Hun on it way early.

Rutgers Prep will provide the opposition here Saturday. A return contest with Princeton High on the Little Tigers' diamond is set for Tuesday.

Three Princeton residents are in the Hun crew, which will row on the Potomac Saturday against Washington and Lee High School. The Red and Black will also enter the annual Stotesbury Cup Regatta on the Schuylkill May 23.

George Sorenson, stroke; Bill Rocknak, number seven; and Dave Riker, number five, are the Princetonians in the Hun shell. Lower Merion High took the opening race of the season from the Johnny Huns on the Schylkill last weekend, winning by three lengths, but Hun's time of 5:15 for the mile event was far better than anything the Red and Black had done in practice. Pete Gardner, freshman coach at the University, is in charge of the Edgerstoune eight.

PHS Nine at .500. Princeton High School's baseball team goes into its first home contest of the season this Friday with an even split in four road contests. The Blue and White entertains Long Branch on the PHS diamond at 3:30; Hun at home next Tuesday and a trip to play Lawrenceville Wednesday will keep the Little Tigers busy.

Victories over Hun and Ewing Township High offset defeats by Trenton Catholic and Hamilton High. The latter team bested the Princetonians last Thursday in a tight pitching duel, 2-1.

Dave Maas was the loser, giving up only seven hits and fanning a like number. His mates could garner but three safeties and a single tally from Harold Heath. Bob Rodefeld scored for the Little Tigers, riding home on Bob Bosley's double, but the latter was left stranded.
